

Biographical Statement – Carmen Guerricagoitia McLean

Carmen Guerricagoitia McLean is a Partner at Jones Day. An experienced trial lawyer, Carmen represents clients in complex civil disputes as well as corporate criminal investigations. Carmen has litigated a wide range of business disputes relating to antitrust, tort, copyright, and contract law. Carmen currently serves as Partner in Charge of Pro Bono and Public Service and Co-Chair of the Diversity Committee for the Washington office. Carmen is an expert on civil discovery and the changing legal landscape surrounding electronic discovery. She frequently speaks and writes about discovery issues, including the recent amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, discovery strategy, and advancements in technology. In 2015, the National Law Journal recognized Carmen as a “Rising Star” in the District of Columbia.

During her time at Jones Day, Carmen has dedicated over 2,700 hours to pro bono work, primarily helping at risk children in the District. Carmen also served on the Board of Directors of the Children’s Law Center from 2009 through 2015. In recognition of her service to disadvantaged children, Carmen was named a “Champion of the Legal Profession” by the National Law Journal in 2011 and awarded the Pro Bono Lawyer of the Year by the D.C. Bar in 2012.

Carmen earned her J.D. from the Georgetown University Law Center and her B.S. from George Fox University. Carmen has lived in the District on Capitol Hill for 17 years, where she now resides with her husband and two children.