

S Micah Salb, Esq.

Biographical Statement

Mr. Salb litigates and provides counsel in Estate Planning and Probate Law matters and directs the Firm's work in its Employment Law, Business Formation & Disputes, and Domestic Relations practice areas. He has extensive litigation and appellate experience. Mr. Salb is AV-Rated by Martindale-Hubbell.

Mr. Salb works with middle-class and high net worth families for estate planning needs. He is experienced in sophisticated wealth-transfer strategies, such as GRATs and installment sales; the structuring of family wealth through Family Limited Partnerships; asset protection techniques; charitable work; and assisting families with the emotional and pragmatic concerns related to intergenerational wealth transfer.

Mr. Salb is often called on to advise clients regarding the formation of new business entities, mergers, and business acquisitions and serves as general counsel to numerous companies.

Mr. Salb has a deep and longstanding commitment to pro bono service. He routinely provides pro bono or discounted legal services to people with financial need. He serves as pro bono general counsel to the Brem Foundation, a local nonprofit working in the field of breast cancer treatment and prevention. Mr. Salb has created and endowed the Richard H. Semsler Prize in Civil Rights Law at the University of the District of Columbia's David A. Clarke School of Law.

Mr. Salb was elected to the Washington Estate Planning Council in 2010. He was elected to the Steering Committee of the DC Bar's Section on Labor and Employment Law in 2005, serving as co-chair from 2008 through 2010. He was a member of the Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Washington Employment Lawyers Association from 2006 through 2008. He has been a section author of the DC Bar's DC Practice Manual since 2006.

Mr. Salb serves on the Board of Directors of the Montgomery County Police Foundation. He was the chair of the Governance Committee of the Board of Directors of Adventure Theatre in Glen Echo, Maryland, from 2010 to 2014. He volunteers at Jewish Primary Day School and Ohev Sholom synagogue.

Mr. Salb graduated from the University of Connecticut and received his law degree from Emory University School of Law, where he received the 1994 Dean's Public Service Award. While in law school, he was the Articles Editor of the Bankruptcy Developments Journal.